We are writing to tell you about changes in your Supplemental Security Income payments. The rest of this letter will tell you more about this change.

We explain how we figured the monthly payment amounts shown below on the last page(s) of this letter. The explanation shows how your income, other than any SSI payments, affects your SSI payment. It also shows how we decided how much of your income affects your payment amount. We include explanations only for months where payment amounts change.

Information About Your Payments

- The amount due you beginning January 2007 will be $326.00. This amount includes $233.00 from the State of California.
- The amount due you is being raised because the law provides for an increase in Supplemental Security Income payments in January 2007 if there was an increase in the cost-of-living during the past year.

Your Payment Is Based On These Facts

Our records show that the following income used to figure your payment has also changed--

Your increased Social Security benefits--before any deductions for Medicare premiums-- of $550.00. You should receive the increased Social Security benefit about January 3, 2007. We must count the increase in your benefits for January 2007 even though we are counting your other income for November 2006.

* If you received CalWORKs and you did not receive a disregard payment, it is for one of the following reasons:

1. The collection dated  came from a federal income tax refund. Under federal law, tax refund money can only be used to pay past due child support and is applied first to repayment of CalWORKs previously paid to you.
2. There is no order for current support to be paid by the noncustodial parent. When no current support is ordered, no disregard can be paid to you. Support collected on an order for past due support or arrears only cannot be used to pay a disregard.

Note: Total "Payments Received" and total "Payments Distributed" may not match because money may be received at the end of one month and paid out at the beginning of the next.
